

Bradford Mechanics' Institute.

Har
AC
901
.A1
no.512

PROGRAMME OF LECTURES, CLASSES, &c.,

SESSION 1860-61.

FRIDAY, SEPT. 28TH,

ANNUAL SOIREE.

J. V. GODWIN, Esq., PRESIDENT, will preside, and distribute the Prizes and Certificates awarded by the Institute and the Society of Arts.

Tea at 6-30, Meeting at 7-30.

TUESDAY, OCT. 16TH,

REV. J. BURNET, LL.D.

THE IMPORTANCE OF CHARACTER.

TUESDAY, OCT. 23RD,

REV. S. G. GREEN, B.A.

THE ALMANAC; OR DAYS, WEEKS, MONTHS & YEARS.

THURSDAY, NOV. 1ST,

MONS. LOUIS BLANC,

(Late Member of the Provisional Government of France, author of the "Histoire de Dix Ans," "History of the French Revolution," "Historical Revelations," &c., &c.)

"The Mysterious Personages and Agencies in France, towards the end of the 18th Century."

PART 1.—Love of the marvellous in a period of Scepticism—The spread of unbelief—The chief of the unbelievers as credulous as a child—The "Convulsionnaires"—Revival of the Rosicrucians—The Gold Makers of the Faubourg St. Marceau—The Count St. Germain—His marvellous casket—His tête-à-tête with Louis XV—A magic mirror—An immortal man—Swedenborg's supernatural travels—Gassner's conversations with the evil spirit—The "Moon Doctor"—The Ghost of Schœpfer—A Thaumaturge in Venice—The pursuit of the Wonderful in Paris—The "Hell in convulsions"—Philosophical and political import of Mesmer's doctrine—The "Unknown Philosopher"—St. Martin and Mesmer—Invisible agitation—Stirring spectacles—The Worshippers of the Unknown—Anecdote of Mme. Campan—Father Harvier—The chess automaton and Diderot's hypothesis—A new field for feminine curiosity—Anecdote of Mc. du Deffand—Queen Marie Antoinette and Blanchard—Self-deceit becomes a luxury indulged in by everyone—The elm tree of Buzancy—How "Faith moves Mountains"—Crowds of sorcerers and necromancers—A curious historical phenomenon.

AN INTERVAL OF TEN MINUTES.

PART 2.—Arrival of a mysterious traveller in Strasbourg—His marvellous cures and boundless munificence—Public enthusiasm akin to worship—Cagliostro in Paris—Strange dramas enacted in the "Rue St. Claude"—The future seen through a water-decanter—A magic crucible—A meeting of phantoms—wonderful popularity of Cagliostro—Cagliostro and the Countess de la Motte—Magic conjuring—The mystery of "The Diamond Necklace"—How Cagliostro got involved in the trial—Extraordinary declarations, never contradicted—Inexhaustible bankers—A Cardinal becomes the guest of a magician—Cagliostro carried in triumph through the streets of Paris—Noblemen keep sentry at his door—Sombre aspect of Rome in the Easter of 1790; Reason why the guard of the Pope is doubled—Cagliostro tried and sentenced by the holy office—Was he a mere enthusiast?—How it happened that he had been lodged in the King's Bench Prison in London—A scene of initiation near Frankfort—The "Illuminati"—Their object; awful nature of the means resorted to—Cagliostro's powers turned to deep purposes—The strange importance of his career explained—Subterranean war carried on in all countries of Europe—Occult Masonic lodges in France—Charles Edward Stuart, the Pretender, and the father of Robespierre—Mysterious agencies—Effect produced—Sinister predictions—How the love of the marvellous and Rationalism concurred in working out a mighty result.

---

TUESDAY, NOV. 13TH,

GEORGE GROSSMITE, Esq., OF LONDON.

SKETCHES BY BOZ.

(Selected from a Course of Lectures on the Writings of Charles Dickens.)

First attempts at Authorship—Early prejudices, peculiarities, and sympathies of the author—Origin of the "Sketches"—Reminiscences of "Our Parish," with a few provincial Portraits—The Oratory of the Vestry—Great contest for the Beadleship—Reflections, miscellaneous and metropolitan, on the rise and decay of shops, the philosophy of street-door knockers—Characteristics of a Country Fair (selected and adapted from the Sketches and other works of Charles Dickens—The author in his graver mood—Reflections on the Pawnbroker's Shop, the Hospital, &c.—Life and death of the Drunkard—The Illustrations will conclude with the laughable sketch of "The Tugs at Ramsgate," abridged and adapted for the occasion.

---

TUESDAY, NOV. 20TH,

GEORGE DAWSON, Esq., M.A., OF BIRMINGHAM.

JOHN CALVIN.

TUESDAY, DEC. 4TH,

DR. LANKESTER, M.D., F.R.S., OF LONDON,

Superintendent of the Animal Product and Food Collections at the South Kensington Museum.

ANIMALS USED BY MAN AS FOOD.

The Ox, Sheep, Pig, Deer. Birds,—Fowls, Pheasants, Partridges, Ducks; Bird's Eggs.
Fish,—Cod, Herrings, Sprats; Crabs, Lobsters, Prawns, Oysters.

---

TUESDAY, DEC. 18TH,

MR. S. H. KERR, PH.D.

THE EARTH'S TENANTS AND THEIR TRACES.

The Earth prepared for Inhabitants—Its first Inhabitants—The Reign of the Radiata—the Crustacea—the Fish—the Reptile—the Bird—the Quadruped—last and lord of all, MAN.

---

TUESDAY, JAN. 8TH,

REV. JAMES R. CAMPBELL, M.A.

ELIOT'S PRISON: ONE OF THE SPRING-HEADS OF ENGLISH LIBERTY.

TUESDAY, JAN. 15TH,

REV. CANON FAWCETT, M.A., OF Low-Moor.

GEOLOGY;—THE COAL FORMATION.

COAL,—its origin, extent, uses, fossils, varieties, modes of working, &c., &c.

TUESDAY, JAN. 29TH,

GEORGE DAWSON, Esq., M.A.

WILLIAM COBBETT.

TUESDAY, FEB 12TH,

GEORGE GROSSMITH. Esq.

THE LUDICROUS IN LIFE.

Introductory remarks upon "the Genius of the Epoch"—the popular tendencies of the Age, the practical character of the People, and the prevailing love of Amusement—Examples of the ludicrous in real life, as pourtrayed in the writings of the modern Satirists—On the ludicrous in Imagination, with illustrations from Hood. Punch, and Dickens, including "a Scene in the Commons," "Our New Cook," "All the World not a Stage," and incidents in the celebrated trial of "Bardell v. Pickwick," for Breach of Promise of Marriage.

TUESDAY, FEB. 26TH,

LEO H. GRINDON, Esq.,

Lecturer on Botany at the Royal School of Medicine, Manchester.

THE ANALOGIES OF PLANTS AND ANIMALS.

TUESDAY, MARCH 12TH,

REV. J. P. CHOWN.

SIX DAYS IN ROME.

Monday, Churches—Tuesday, Palaces—Wednesday, Ancient Rome—Thursday, the Paintings—Friday, the Sculpture—Saturday, Obelisks and Fountains.

THE LECTURES COMMENCE EACH EVENING AT EIGHT O'CLOCK.

Members and Subscribers are required on all occasions to show their Tickets before admission to the Lectures.

CLASSES.—SESSION 1860–61.

CLASSES.	TEACHERS.	Mon.	Tues.	Wed.	Thur.	Fri.	TERMS.
		Mon.	Tues.	Wed.	Thur.	Fri.
Writing and Arithmetic..... {	Messrs. Robertshaw, Laycock & Assistants	7½	..	..	..	7½	Free
Reading—First Class.....	Mr. Potter .....	..	..	7	..	..	Free
Do. Second Class.....	Do. ....	..	..	8	..	..	Free
Elementary Grammar—Section 1	.....	..	..	..	..	..	Free
Do. do. Section 2	.....	..	..	..	..	..	Free
Advanced Grammar .....	.....	..	..	..	..	..	Free
English Language and Literature	„ Scales .....	..	..	..	7½	2/6 per ½-yr.	Free
Geography.....	„ Robertshaw .....	..	..	8	..	..	Free
Physical Geography .....	„ Scales .....	..	..	..	..	2/6 per ½-yr.	Free
English History .....	„ Potter .....	..	..	..	..	..	Free
Mathematics.....	.....	..	..	..	..	..	Free
Book-keeping .....	„ Heselton .....	..	..	8	..	2/6 per ½-yr.	Free
Elementary Chemistry .....	R. Parkinson, Ph.D. ....	..	..	..	..	10/ per ½-yr.	Free
Animal Physiology.....	Mr. Williams .....	..	..	..	..	..	Free
Latin .....	„ Wyatt .....	..	..	..	..	..	Free
French .....	Mons. Landolphe ..	..	..	8	..	5/ per quar.	Free
German .....	Herr Beer .....	8	..	..	..	5/ per quar.	Free
Drawing, Freehand & Mechanical	Mr. W. Smith and Assistant .....	7½	..	..	7½	2/ per quar.	Free

Members and Subscribers desirous of joining any of the Classes are requested to give in their names to the Secretary.

THE LIBRARY

Comprises upwards of 7,500 Volumes, carefully selected from the various departments of Literature, Science, and the Arts. A NEW CATALOGUE and SUPPLEMENT have lately been published.

Open Daily, from One to Half-past Nine, p.m.

THE NEWS-ROOM

Is supplied with TELEGRAPHIC INTELLIGENCE, and the following Daily and Weekly Papers:—

DAILY

Times, 2 copies
Daily News
Daily Telegraph

Morning Post
Morning Herald

Morning Star
Manchester Guardian
Manchester Examiner & Times

WEEKLY

Australian and New Zealand Gazette
Bradford Observer, 3 copies
Bradford Review, 2 copies
Builder
Canadian News
Dial
Dublin Freeman's Journal
Economist
Edinburgh Scotsman

Examiner
Guardian
Halifax Guardian
Illustrated Lond. News, 3 cop.
Illustrated News of the World
Illustrated Times
Leader
Leeds Intelligencer
Leeds Mercury, 3 copies
Leeds Times

Liverpool Albion
Lloyd's Weekly
London Review
New York Tribune
Nonconformist
Press
Punch, 2 copies
Saturday Review
Scientific Englishman
Spectator
Weekly Record

THE READING-ROOM

Is supplied with the following Reviews:—

British Quarterly
Dublin
Eclectic

London Quarterly
National
North American

North British Quarterly
Scottish

And with the following Magazines and Serials:—

All the Year Round
Art Journal
Athenæum
Bentley's Miscellany
Blackwood
Bradshaw's Railway Guide
British Postal Guide
Cassell's Family Paper
Chambers' Journal
Chemical News
Cornhill

Denton's Railway Time-Table
Dublin University
Engineer and Architects'
Fraser
Herald of Peace
Journal of Education
Leisure Hour
Macmillan
Mechanics' Magazine
Melióra
Musical Times

National Magazine
Newton's London Journal
Notes and Queries
Once-a-Week
Phytologist
Recreative Science
Society of Arts' Journal
Tait's Magazine
Vegetarian Messenger
Welcome Guest

Open Daily, from Eight a.m. to Ten p.m.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION.

LIFE MEMBERS, TEN GUINEAS.

Members above 21 years of age .....	0 12 0	or	0 3 0
Subscribers above 18 and under 21 .....	0 10 0	or	0 2 6
14 and under 18 .....	0 8 0	or	0 2 0
Female Subscribers .....	0 6 0	or	0 1 6

Persons paying 26s. annually are Members, with the privilege of nominating two youths under the age of 18 years, to the benefits of the Institute.

Firms nominating eight or more persons have a deduction of 2s. for each person nominated.

Persons desirous of becoming Members or Subscribers may do so at any time on application to the Librarian at the Institute.

M. H. WALLS, Secretary and Librarian.